Good afternoon and I hope this email finds you well.

Let me first apologize profusely for the need to reschedule our meeting.

As you know, we are in tumultuous times and in my role here at VCU, I am required to be on scene and on site for any major protests.

We were alerted this morning about a major protest taking place at 2pm today that requires my attention.

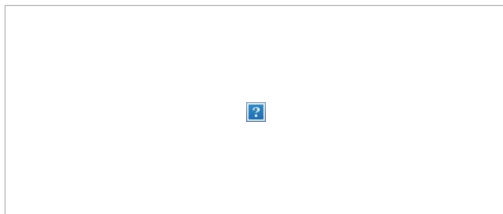

Please accept my sincere apologies and I truly look forward to meeting with you.

Take care and thank you. :)

Aaron

Good Morning,

This morning multiple of our pro-Palestine groups posted an event commemorating the encampment at Cabell Lawn. The social media post, see below, recommends participants bring blankets, homework, art supplies, snacks, music and games.
